CHRISTIAN JOY When We Make Most Possible Out of

Christian Joy, from the text I. John 1:4. "And these things write we unto you that your joy may be full." Among other things, he said:

Everywhere in life we see this law illustrated that just in proportion as we are susceptible to any object will it afford any satisfaction. If this susceptibility is wanting, the object of pursuit will be unattractive and perhaps repulsive. Not only must the objects we pursue stamp their necessity upon us, and awaken our enthusiasm, but we must have capacity to understand them and the patience to carry them to their logical issue. Every man has a religious nature, and therefore has the capacity for religion and if he finds no joy in it the fault lies in the way in which he pursues it.

All Christians get some joy out of religion; some no doubt, more than others. But few, comparatively, get

All Christians get some joy out of religion; some no doubt, more than others. But few comparatively, get the fullness of joy; where we make the most possible out of our religion four things, at least, will be realized:

I The joy that comes from the sense of characted built up in Christ.

Deep down in all hearts is the desire to be something and somebody. This passion is so alrong that not even evil can wholly eradicate it. The very worst of men sometimes have moments when they despite themselves; when the better nature rises in protest against the outrage to which it is subjected. Reason and revelation emphasize two facts. First, no man fiving or dead ever found a sinful life satisfactory secondic, no man ever experienced one moment of real loy in sin, i.e. the highest joy of which the human soul is suaceptible. Man is exentially and inherently a religious being, therefore real joy does not come as he runs cornter to the purpose of his being. No mar can be perfectly settisfied with the outrage committed against his better self. Real joy comes from character built up in the suirit of Christ.

H. The joy that comes from a sense of relationship with Christ.

Much is made of family stock, even pedigree among lower animals has market value. It is no idle boast to be able to say that the blood of old Miles Standish or John Winthrop flows in my veins. It is vastly better than the heritage of acres or gold. Prophets and aposties, who made history are your forbears. The mantle of St. Paul falls on any man who has faith, every man who loves Jesus walks in the footsteps of John, the beloved disciple. Bank of Germany's weekly statement. This showed an increase of $42,000,000 to be able to say that the blood of old Miles Standish or John Winthrop flows in my vains. It is wastly better that the herliage of acres or gold. Prophets and aposties, who made history, are your forhears. The mantle of St. Paul falls on any man who has faith every man who loves Jesus valles in the footsteps of John, the beloved disciple.

Mathematics tell us that things that are equal to each other. If we are like Carist and are related to Him we relike one another and are related; hence the fatherhood of man, a great fact that overrides all differences in denomination.

III. The joy that comes from Fellowship with Christ and conquered with Christ and conquered

IV. The joy that comes from a sense of co-pertnership with Christ. We sometimes wonder what God an see in us as helpers in the work of remembers. But He calls us into His vineyard. God never makes any mistakes. He never acts unworthy of His ability and wisdom. The logis of true fellowship is co-partnership in pervice. Is there any joy here? Look into the transfigured face of returned missionaries as they dwell upon their work. Have you this joy? If not, buckle on the harness now: bare your arms to the elbow and plunge into the work. Then you will taste the fullness of joy—it comes in no other Rollable Companies Fifty Six Candidates Open the Crimson's Football Season -Fight of Last Year's Men Report-First Game With Bates, September 30.

Cambridge, Mass., Sept. 18.—Fifty-six husky youths removed their civilian clothes, donned their football togs and romped into the Stadium here today, opening the football season of 1911 at Harvard university. To the several hundred observers the men appeared to be considerably heavier than the gridiron heroes who have represented Harvard during the past few years.

For an hour or more Coach Haughton, assisted by several former Harvard players and Captain Fisher, put the men through the usual early season practice. Passing and falling on the balf, the lining up of the backs, punting, a few forward passes, a tackle or two of the ward passes, a tackle or two of the several dummies and a run around the field constituted today's work.

made the astonishing statement that the reason why so many applicants for insurance are rejected is because kidney trouble is so common to the American people, and the large majority of applicants do not even suspect that they have the disease.

He states that judging from his own experience and reports from druggists who are constantly in direct touch with the public, there is one preparation that has probably been more successful in relieving and curing these diseases than any remedy known. The mild and healing influence of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its remarkable record of cures.

We find that Swamp-Root is strictly an herbal compound and we would advise our readers who feel in need of such a remedy to give it a trial. It is such a remedy to give it a trial. It is on sale at all drug stores in bottles of two sizes — fifty-cents and one dollar.

However, if you wish first to test its wonderful merits, send to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Einghamton, N. Y., for a sample bottle, absolutely free. When writing be sure and mention The Norwich Daily Bulletin.

SEVENTEEN IN SQUAD FOR ACADEMY FOOTBALL First Real Practice Started Monday

-Material Looks Good. Seventeen ambitious red-jerseyed athletes responded on Monday to the formal opening of the Norwich Free Academy's practice season for places on the football team and were put through the initiatory moves for something over an hour by Coach Leonard and Captain Gebrath. Quick starting, falling on the ball, handling the leather and a run around the field to develop their wind were the principal points in the afternoon's workout, but these were enough to warm the boys up in good shape and the shower baths were a welcome relief when the signal to quit was given.

Of last year's eleven the men seen in suits were Captain Gebrath, half-
